HEALING FAMILIES THROUGH PREVENTION & TREATMENT

PhoenixCenter
Prevent • Treat • Recover

ABOUT

The Phoenix Center is the legislated authority on substance use disorders in Greenville County as established by South Carolina Act 301 and is a service of the Greenville County Commission on Alcohol and Drug Abuse. With a dedicated staff and innovative programs, the Phoenix Center takes a proactive approach to reducing substance use disorders as the leading cause of family collapse and harm to children. The Phoenix Center believes that substance use disorders are both preventable and treatable, and we offer a continuum of care to meet the ever-changing needs of our community.

RESIDENTIAL TREATMENT

Medical Detoxification

Open 24 hours a day and 7 days a week, this 16 bed Medical Detox Unit is a first step in preparing an individual to receive treatment. Detoxification is an opportunity to offer patients information and to motivate them for treatment and recovery.

Serenity Place

A 16-bed residential facility designed to treat pregnant women, young mothers and their preschool-age children (space available for 16 women and 2 children each). Residential treatment is intensive, and daily life is structured with a focus on healing, family, and recovery.

Child Therapeutic Services

Child therapeutic services is a program at Serenity Village for children ages six weeks through six years old. These children are in need of specialized service to help them develop socially, emotionally, physically, and intellectually.

White Horse Academy

A 16-bed treatment facility for boys age 13 through 17 that provides a holistic treatment environment of education and healing. They receive counseling from licensed and/or credentialed addiction treatment professionals with special training in adolescent care. These young men and their families progress through their treatment plan, towards recovery and a healthy life.
