Children In The Middle (CIM) Participant Agreement

As a participant in CIM, I understand that:

- 1) CIM is an educational and skill-building program designed to help me as an individual and parent in a divorce/separation/custody situation.
- 2) CIM is not designed to take the place of needed assessment, evaluation, or counseling services to help with any personal, marital, family, or psychological/emotional concerns. Such services should be sought accordingly. CIM can provide me with a listing of professionals and community agencies that provide such services.
- 3) The fee for CIM is $75.00 and is to be paid prior to the start of the class.
- 4) I will not be placed in the same class as my separated or ex-spouse.
- 5) Since CIM is an educational not a treatment program, participation may not be protected under the Federal or State confidentiality laws. However, any information received will be treated in a confidential and professional manner.
- 6) I will receive a certificate upon completion of CIM. If the Family Court requires information regarding my participation in and/or completion of CIM it will be provided to them.
- 7) I understand that I am required to arrive on time and attend all scheduled classes. I understand that if I arrive late, I may not be able to enter due to the disruption it causes the class and important information I may have missed. If I miss one of the scheduled classes due to illness or emergency, I will call the CIM instructor and reschedule the class. If I have to miss more than one of the CIM classes, I will be required to restart the classes.
- 8) I understand if I do not complete the program within three months, I will be unsuccessfully terminated and all fees are forfeited.
- 9) It is my responsibility to keep the CIM Coordinator informed of any change in my address or phone number so that I can be contacted regarding my class schedule.
- 10) Completion of CIM and compliance with any applicable court order is my responsibility.
